

MODAL VERBS – 1

Choose the correct option to fill in the gaps (two options may be correct).

- 1 – I don't like that cut in your finger. I think you _____ go to the emergency department.
  - Oh, it's just a tiny cut, I don't think he _____ see a doctor for this.

- 2 – Your hair is too long, don't you think you _____ have it cut?
  - Yes, you're right, but tomorrow I _____ study for Friday's exam. It'll _____ wait until next week.

- 3 – You _____ forget to water the plants while we're away.
  - You _____ worry, I won't forget, but now you _____ hurry up or you will miss your train!

- 4 We _____ find a way to make people aware that they _____ throw away plastic waste.

5 Young children _____ have access to mobile phones. They _____ physical exercise and playing with toys and other children, not sitting with a screen in front of their eyes.

6 – Listen to me, son: you _____ never try drugs. You _____ use them to have fun with your friends, and they can ruin your life and your family's life. You _____ forget this.

– You _____ tell me that, dad, I'm not stupid.

7 – I'm going to the greengrocer's because I _____ buy some onions right now, because we have run out of them, so when John arrives tell him that he _____ buy the fruit, I'll do that. But remind him that he _____ buy some wine, will you? By the way, _____ you be doing your homework?

– No, Mum, I _____ do anything today.