Because summer has started, it's time to think about sun protection! Here are some useful tips — getting burned by the sun next time you're at the beach:

1.

Use plenty of sunscreen

"These days most people remember — sunscreen," says skin doctor Lena Yang. "But they never use enough. Most people use only 25 to 50 percent of the recommended amount of sunscreen."

Cover up

Sunscreen will protect your skin, but clothing is even more effective. When you're outdoors, wearing a hat and a T-shirt with long sleeves is guaranteed — your skin safe.

3.

Remember your eyes

Your eyes need — protected from the sun too, so buy a nice pair of sunglasses, particularly if you drive a lot.
