

Section A: Predict Before Reading

1. Look at the title:

“A Busy Morning in the City”

Answer the questions:

a) What do you think this text will be about?

b) Who do you think might be in the story?

c) What clues helped you make your prediction?
(Title / Picture / Prior Knowledge)

Section B: Predict While Reading

Read the lines below:

“The street was full of noise. The vendor shouted, the bus conductor waved his hand, and children rushed toward the school gate.”

2. What do you think will happen next?

Tick (✓) one or write your own idea.

- The street will become quiet
- More people will join the street
- Everyone will go back home
- My prediction: _____

3. Circle the action words that helped you predict:

shouted waved rushed gate

Section C: Predict and Check

Read further:

“Slowly, the street became quiet as the last bell rang and shops began to close.”

4. Was your prediction correct?

Yes No Partly

5. Write one sentence explaining your answer:

Section D: Use Pictures to Predict

(Teacher shows a picture OR students imagine a picture of a busy market.)

6. Write two predictions using the picture:

a) I think _____

b) I think _____

Section E: Reflection

7. Complete the sentence:

Making predictions helps me understand a story because
