

1. What does the speaker say about the members of the audience?
 - A. They all lie at some point in their life.
 - B. They don't want to admit they are liars.
 - C. Not everyone knows how to lie.
2. What's the main reason that people tell a white lie?
 - A. They want to fool others.
 - B. They don't want to upset someone.
 - C. They don't have a serious opinion.
3. What might the stress caused by being interviewed by the police make someone do
 - A. tell a lie
 - B. avoid cooperation
 - C. feel embarrassed
4. Why may people appear guilty when they are questioned about a crime they didn't commit?
 - A. because they have actually committed a different crime
 - B. because they have something else to hide
 - C. because they feel they have to lie
5. How does body language indicate someone is lying?
 - A. Liars don't know how to control their facial expressions.
 - B. Liars' words and body movements don't agree.
 - C. Liars' body movements are not natural.

Listen to the speakers. For questions (1-6) choose the correct answer (A, B or C).

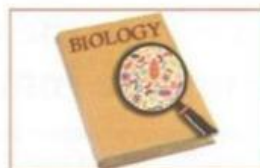

1. Which course are both the man and the woman taking?

A

B

C

2. How long did it take the man to finish the history exam?

A

B

C

3. What does the man believe will prepare students for the world of work?

A

B

C

- | | | |
|--|---|---|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 4. According to Mark Reed, how can free school meals improve students' academic performance? <ol style="list-style-type: none"> A. Families will be able to spend the money they save on their children's education. B. Eating healthy food will help students concentrate more. C. The schools will make sure that students eat healthily and study more. | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 5. What is the relationship between the two speakers? <ol style="list-style-type: none"> A. classmates B. mother and son C. teacher and student | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 6. What is the main purpose of the speech? <ol style="list-style-type: none"> A. to give instructions B. to reassure C. to warn |
|--|---|---|