

Nickname: _____

No.: _____

Class: _____

Activity 1: Match the word to its definition.

1. criticise _____	A. being treated fairly and having the same rights and opportunities as others
2. equality _____	B. including all people and not excluding any group or individual, especially those who are often left out
3. inclusive _____	C. to point out the faults or mistakes in someone or something, often with the intention of offering improvement suggestions

Activity 2: Explain in your own words what the following words mean.

- Feedback: _____

- Disagreement: _____

- Community: _____

Activity 3: Complete the following text with the words below.

feedback	disagreement	community
inclusive	equality

In a strong and supportive _____, it is important that all members respect each other and work towards _____. While _____ may arise when people share different opinions, it can often lead to better understanding if handled respectfully. Constructive _____ should be given with care so that every person feels valued. An _____ environment ensures that all individuals feel welcome and appreciated.

Activity 4: Circle the correct answer.

1. In our class, every / both student is encouraged to share their ideas.
2. You can choose either / neither tea or coffee, it's up to you!
3. The two friends always help both / each other with their homework.
4. Most / All of the feedback we received was positive, but there's still room for improvement.
5. There is no / some reason to criticise someone without understanding their point of view first.
6. This community welcomes each / all people regardless of their background or beliefs.
7. In an inclusive environment, people respect one another / neither and work together towards equality.
8. I couldn't decide between the two options because I liked both / every of them equally!

Activity 5: Fill in the gaps with the words below.

all	every	either... or...	neither
one another	both	no	each other

1. You can choose _____ to volunteer at the shelter _____ help organise the charity event.
2. The participants in the workshop shared ideas with _____ to come up with creative solutions.
3. There is _____ reason to criticise someone without offering constructive feedback.
4. In a diverse and inclusive workplace, employees should respect _____ and work together towards equality.
5. The disagreement was so intense that _____ side wanted to listen to the other's perspective.

6. I couldn't decide between the two proposals because _____ of them had great potential!
7. This organisation welcomes _____ individuals who want to contribute to building a stronger community.
8. _____ student in the class was asked to share their opinion about equality.

Activity 6: Answer the following questions in your own words.

1. Have you ever been part of a disagreement that led to positive change? What did you learn from it?

2. Why is feedback important in building a strong community? How can using words like 'all', 'most' or 'everyone' make feedback more inclusive and helpful?

3. How can we give criticism nicely? What words or phrases should we use?

