REVISION

TENSES. Complete the blanks with the correct form of the verb (Present Simple, Continuous, Past Simple or Present Perfect, Will or Going to)

I usually _____ (start) my workday at 9 a.m. and I _____ (check) my emails first.

At the moment, I _____ (work) on a new authentication feature, so I _____ (spend) a lot of time reviewing code.

Yesterday, we _____ (find) a serious bug in production, but we _____ (already/deploy) a temporary fix. The issue _____(appear) on the login page on Friday afternoon.

I've been working at this company for three years, and I _____(learn) a lot since then.

We already discussed the roadmap, so we _____ (work) on performance improvements next sprint.

I think we _____ (need) more time to finish this feature.

FIND AND CORRECT THE MISTAKES. Each sentence has one mistake. Rewrite it correctly

- I am usually working with the backend team.
→ _____
- We discussed the problem on the meeting.
→ _____
- I've finished this task yesterday.
→ _____
- The bug is going to fixed soon.
→ _____
- I work here since two years.
→ _____
- We usually deploy updates the Fridays.
→ _____
- The error appeared on the database.
→ _____
- I didn't finished the task yet.
→ _____
- We will going to review the code tomorrow.
→ _____
- The team is discuss the issue right now.
→ _____

WILL VS. GOING TO. Choose the correct option and explain why.

- We (will / are going to) update the documentation this week — it's already on the sprint board.

Why? _____

- The deadline is very tight. I think we (will / are going to) need extra testing time.

Why? _____

- We already agreed on the plan, so we (will / are going to) migrate the database next month.

Why? _____

- I didn't expect this bug, but I (will / am going to) fix it after the meeting.

Why? _____

- According to the roadmap, the team (will / is going to) focus on performance improvements next quarter.

Why? _____

Project Overview. You are onboarding a new developer to the project. Write 8–10 sentences explaining:

- what the project usually involves
- what the team is working on now
- something important that happened recently
- something the team has already done
- what the team is going to work on next
- one thing you think will happen in the future

Use different tenses and at least 2 prepositions.