ARTICLES GEOGRAPHICAL NAMES SUM UP 2 ЦТ

CHOOSE THE RIGHT ARTICLE

1. Ships traveling from ..... Asia to ..... Europe often pass through ..... Red Sea and ..... Suez Canal.
2. ..... Mount Everest stands on the border between Nepal and Tibet, part of ..... Himalayas.
3. ..... Atacama Desert in ..... Chile is one of the driest places on ..... Earth, yet it's near ..... Pacific Ocean.
4. ..... Mekong River supports millions of people as it flows through six countries in ..... Southeast Asia.
5. ..... Borneo, the third-largest island in the world, is shared by ..... Indonesia, ... Malaysia, and Brunei.
6. ..... Caspian Sea —technically a saltwater lake—is bordered by five countries, including ..... Russia and ..... Iran.
7. ..... Appalachian Mountains are among the oldest mountain ranges in the world.
8. ..... Easter Island, a remote island in ..... Pacific Ocean, is famous for its moai statues.
9. ..... Thames River flows through ..... London and into ..... North Sea.
10. ..... Kalahari Desert covers much of Botswana and parts of Namibia and ..... South Africa.
11. ..... Mount Vesuvius overlooks the Bay of Naples in .....Tyrrhenian Sea.
12. ..... Lake Geneva lies between ..... Switzerland and ..... France, nestled near ..... Alps.
13. ..... Arabian Sea borders ..... India, ... Pakistan, and the Arabian Peninsula.
14. ..... Great Victoria Desert stretches across ..... southern Australia, far from any ocean.
15. ..... New Zealand consists of two main islands separated by ..... Cook Strait.
16. ..... Yangtze River is the longest in ..... Asia and flows into ..... East China Sea.

LIVEWORKSHEETS