Writing

Part 1

1 Read the exam task below. Then quickly read the example answer. Do you agree with the writer's views?

In your English class you have been talking about endangered species. Now, your English teacher has asked you to write an essay. Write an essay using all the notes and give reasons for your point of view. Write your essay in 140–190 words.

Many wildlife species are in danger of extinction.
What contributes to endangered species?

Notes

Things to write about:

- 1 Deforestation
- 2 Pollution
- 3 _____ (your own idea)

Every day, the numbers of certain wildlife species that still survive in the wild go down. We should look after wildlife, but we aren't taking this responsibility seriously and now many animals are dying out. As the world population grows, we are taking up more space. In many countries, large areas of trees and forests are cut down to build new houses. This deforestation destroys the habitat of wildlife. They don't have anywhere to live or find food.

The levels of pollution are also increasing. Water pollution is especially dangerous to animals. Fertilisers from agriculture enter animals' water sources, which can poison them or cause diseases. We also can't forget the effects of hunting. In some countries, animal parts such as horns and trunks are considered valuable items. These animals are killed only for these parts, which threatens some species. Wildlife is an important part of the natural world, and it helps keep our ecosystem in balance. Unfortunately, as a consequence of human activity, some animals are in danger of disappearing forever.

2 Read the essay in exercise 1 again. Complete the chart.

Topic sentence	Wildlife species are in danger of extinction.
Supporting idea 1	As the population grows, we are taking up more space.
Detail (fact)	Large areas of trees and forests are cut down.
Detail (fact)	Deforestation destroys the habitats of wildlife.
Supporting idea 2

3 EXAM Read another exam task. Write your answer in 140–190 words in an appropriate style.

In your English class you have been talking about sustainable living. Now, your English teacher has asked you to write an essay. Write an essay using all the notes and give reasons for your point of view. Write your essay in 140–190 words.

'There is no such thing as "away".
When we throw anything away, it must go somewhere.' – Annie Leonard.
Do you agree?

Notes:

Things to write about:

- 1 waste reduction
- 2 food choices
- 3 _____ (your own idea)

Summative practice

1 Underline the correct alternative to complete the text.

Island nations in the Pacific regions are at risk because of (1) climate / urban change. Extreme weather events such as floods are causing soil (2) destruction / degradation, and (3) biodegradable / plastic waste reaches (4) to them / them from miles away. However, the biggest challenge is from (5) increasing / rising sea levels. Several smaller islands are expected to be completely under water within the next decade. This is another example of how poorer communities are suffering the effects of global (6) change / warming caused by other countries' use of (7) fossil / renewable fuels. The sad truth is that richer countries' (8) climate / carbon footprint damages countries thousands of miles away from them.

2 ERROR CORRECTION Each of these sentences contains a mistake. Underline it and correct it.

- 1 I've got a really interesting news to tell you! _____
- 2 Don't worry, the police is coming to help you. _____
- 3 That area is marked for deforestation to replace the trees that have been cut down. _____
- 4 The factory uses solar energy, which means that it uses energy from the Earth's crust. _____
- 5 Jon can't find his glass to read his book. _____
- 6 Can you explain me how this works? _____
