

The image features a futuristic, high-tech environment with a dark, starry background. A glowing green archway frames a central white panel. The archway has a green light bar at the top with the word "START" in white. The central panel contains the title "Akses Website" and a list of three items, each with a circular icon. The floor is made of dark, reflective tiles with glowing green lines. The overall aesthetic is sci-fi and digital.
