British food

Study the materials in your Prepare 8 Student's Book (p.62–63)

Test "Fact or Myth?"

Choose the correct answer.

1. Why did tourists previously have a poor opinion of British food?
   a) Britain did not have good quality products.
   b) Tourists only ate in cheap, visitor-oriented restaurants.
   c) British people did not cook at home.
2. Which dish is traditionally considered a "Sunday" meal?
   a) Fish and chips.
   b) Roast dinner with gravy.
   c) Ploughman's lunch.
3. Which of these statements about local dishes is CORRECT according to the text?
   a) Cullen skink is a sweet dessert from Scotland.
   b) Welsh rarebit is a dish made of rabbit meat.
   c) Bara brith is a sweet bread with fruit and spices.
4. Which international dish has become so popular that it is often called Britain's "national dish"?
   a) Pizza.
   b) Curry.
   c) Pasta.

Vocabulary Match (Highlighted words)

Match the words from the text with their correct definitions.

1. Takeaways	a) something difficult or demanding
2. Perhaps	b) famous or unique dishes of a place
3. Challenge	c) a place where you buy cooked food to eat elsewhere
4. Specialities	d) maybe / possibly

Menu categorization

Categorize the following dishes into the correct groups based on the text:

Full English breakfast cullen skink curry fish and chips Welsh rarebit roast beef Bara brith Pizza.

Traditional favourites Local specialities International options

LIVEWORKSHEETS