

Exercise 3:

The elders chose to _____ the object at the bottom of a forgotten _____, hidden deep inside cracked _____. The _____ tunnel breathed cold air, as if it remembered every scream ever made there. Time _____ the walls, uncovering human _____ no one had recorded.

Old journals claimed the dead were taken by _____, brought as a curse rather than a disease. A sealed _____ chest lay among the bones. Inside rested a _____ treasure, carefully _____ with twisted symbols that no one could _____ or understand. Its presence felt _____, heavy on the mind.

The legend said the treasure would not chase its victims. It would simply wait—and then _____ them by stealing their sanity, one by one.