A NASA astronaut is giving a talk at the Science Museum at 9.00 am tomorrow.
What..... you(do) at that time?

Well, I(not sleep)! At 8.00 am,
I.....(go) to swimming practise. But I could come to the talk after. What..... the astronaut.....(talk) about?

She.....(discuss) the future of space travel.
She..... also.....(show) videos from her time in space!

Wow, that sounds interesting! I want to come but I won't be there on time. I hope I .....(not interrupt) the talk if I come late.

I'm sure it's fine. Come to the museum after swimming practise and we can go in together.
I.....(wait) for you outside. See you then!

2. Complete the e-mail with the correct form of the verbs in brackets. Use will, be going to or the Present Simple with future meaning.

Dear Emily,

I haven't had time to write in the past few days because I'm getting ready for my holiday.
I'm so excited! My friends Anna, Cecilia and I.....(meet) at the train station tomorrow morning. We have to be there early, because the train.....(leave) at exactly 8.05. Hopefully, we.....(not be) late. It's a long train ride, so we.....(try) to sleep because in the evening, we.....(go) to a party on the beach!

I.....probably.....(not write) again for a few days because hopefully, I.....(be) very busy.

What about you? What..... you.....(do) this weekend?

Best wishes,

Kate
