Name _____ Date _____

Use the Future Progressive Tense

The future progressive tense is used for something that will be happening at some point in the future. It uses the future tense of the helping verb to be (will be), followed by a main verb ending in -ing.

Complete each sentence with the future progressive tense of the verb shown.

1. This summer, I will be raising money for the animal shelter.
   raise

2. On Tuesdays, Aidan _____ his neighbor in long division.
   tutor

3. At the end of June, I _____ my aunts and uncles in Nigeria.
   visit

4. My talkative little brother _____ his own podcast for a school project.
   start

5. Allison's job at the party _____ balloons to all the party favors.
   tie

6. With this cast on my arm, I _____ every baseball game this season.
   miss

7. Guinea pigs are social pets, so you _____ to buy at least two.
   want

8. The rising magma means the volcano _____ soon.
   erupt

9. This Halloween, Chloe _____ up in one of her grandma's vintage dresses.
   dress

10. Martin wants to win tournaments, so he _____ golf almost every day.
    practice