

FUTURE TENSES & PASSIVE VOICE QUIZ!

Tuesday, January 27, 2026

Part 1: True or False

1. We use 'will' for a decision made at the moment (an unplanned decision). (T) (F)
2. In a passive voice sentence, the future of action is always the subject. (T) (F)
3. "Be going to" is used to talk about future plans or intentions made before the speaking. (T) (F)
4. The passive voice is formed using the verb to be present participle (taking). (T) (F)
4. The passive voice formed for the verb + to be have present evidence (-ing form). (T) (F)
5. We can use 'be going to' for predictions with evidence (e.g., "Look at those dark clouds!") (T) (F)

Part 2: Multiple Choice

1. Which sentence uses the _____ a new _____ correctly?
 A. The cake ate the. am going to cake.
 A. will buy was eating to cake.
 A. will C. buy
 B. was bought D. are being
 I've decided! I'll buy a new car next month.
 B. The boy was eaten by the cake.
 C. am boy eaten to boy.
 D. was bought
 A. A bridge will be got into build.
 C. A bridge will be them
4. "Watch out! You _____ drop that vase!" A. They is will build a bridge formed?

Part 3: Gap-Filling

1. (Future Intention): "I _____ (study) medicine when I go to the university next year."
 (study) medicine The ancient temple discovered later, so take a picture in 1920.
3. (Passive Voice): "Unplanned" (rain) _____ (discover) by team tomorrow morning.
4. (Passive Voice): _____ (finish by 11 am) the meeting: _____ (will rain).
 (will rain) the meeting: _____ (will rain).
5. (Present Evidence): Look at the time! We _____ late _____ busy at the meeting.