

✦ AFTER READING CHECKLIST

BASIC UNDERSTANDING OF TEXT

- Questions checking literal meaning of the text.
- Tasks confirming students understood plot, setting, characters, events.
- Use of relevant high-frequency words that were taught earlier.
- Recycling of key vocabulary from the text
- Reference to relevant grammar structures that appear in the text (optional but encouraged)

Basic Information

Use the link to help you

Did you like the play? Explain:

Fill in the Key play Elements:

Characters: (Who)
Setting (Where, When)
Climax (High point of story)
Resolution (Outcome or story's conclusion)

Themes

Use the link to help you

Theme	Explanation	Give an example to show how it is connected to the play.
Justice and Fairness	Explanation: The play shows the importance of a fair trial, where decisions must be based on evidence, not assumptions or biases.
Reasonable Doubt	Explanation: The play explores the importance of questioning evidence and finding reasonable doubt before declaring someone guilty, emphasising the principle of "innocent until proven guilty."
Moral	Explanation: Each juror is responsible for deciding someone's fate.

ANALYSIS AND INTERPRETATION

- At least one activity that pushes students beyond literal meaning
- Use of relevant literary terms:
 - theme
 - conflict
 - characterization
 - message
 - tone, etc.

BRIDGING TEXT AND CONTEXT

- At least one activity connecting the text to wider ideas
- At least one activity linking to author's background, historical context, cultural context, or universal themes to the text.
- Students connect personal experience or real-world knowledge to the text
- This component may appear anytime after reading—ensure it clearly connects text ↔ outside world

How has this story helped you think about the importance of making careful decisions during emotional moments?
Choice 3 Fear, Grief & Difficult Decisions	• What does Mrs. White's desperate wish to bring Herbert back show about how grief can affect judgment? • Why do you think Mr. White was afraid of the result of the second wish, even though it came from love? • Have you ever made a choice when you were upset and later realized it wasn't the best decision?
Answer

FINAL CHECK FOR A COMPLETE AFTER-READING ACTIVITY

- Can show literal understanding of literary piece
- Can show deeper thinking and interpretation of literary piece
- Can make broader connections to context or universal themes
- Can use vocabulary to reinforce ideas.
- Can use related grammar structures to the text meaning or task.

Make sure task is align with level of class.