

Odorono-the who

Fill up the gaps (past simple vs past perfect)

She sang the best she _____
She couldn't ever sing any better
But Mister Davidson never _____
She knew he would forget her

She _____ him there
And put herself to ransom
He had stared
He really _____ quite handsome

She _____ her best
She couldn't ever look any better
But she _____ she'd failed the test
She knew he would forget her

Triumphant was the way she'd felt
As she _____ the applause
Triumphant was the way she'd felt
When she saw him at the dressing room door

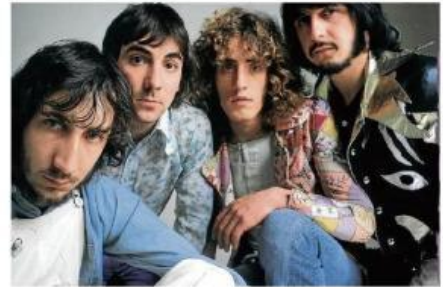

She was happier than _____
As he praised her for her grace
But his expression _____, she had seen
As he leant to kiss her face

It _____ there
He claimed a late appointment
She quickly _____
To hide her disappointment

She ripped her glittering gown couldn't face another show, no
Her deodorant _____
She should have used Odorono

Questions

1. What's the song about?
2. What is the aim of the song?
3. What is Odorono?

Was acknowledged

Had really looked she had ever been

Changed Rang

'd seen ended

Turned 'd ever sung

Knew had let her down