

Instructions

Read the following passage and choose the correct word (verb or noun).
Fill in the blanks so that each sentence is grammatically correct.

Passage

Education is very important for national (1) _____. (develop / development) Many governments (2) _____ (decide / decision) that education should be improved in order to prepare students for the future. Good education helps students gain useful (3) _____ (inform / information) and develop important skills.

In schools, teachers must (4) _____ (organize / organization) lessons carefully to support student learning. Clear (5) _____ (communicate / communication) between teachers and students helps reduce misunderstanding. When students show good classroom (6) _____ (perform / performance), teachers feel proud of their achievement.

However, learning is not always easy. Students may experience (7) _____ (fail / failure), but they should not fear it. Instead, they should learn from their mistakes and continue to (8) _____ (improve / improvement) themselves. Scientific research also plays a key role in social (9) _____ (develop / development). Many important (10) _____ (discover / discoveries) began with simple ideas. Researchers must carefully (11) _____ (discuss / discussion) their results before reaching a final (12) _____ (decide / decision).

Public (13) _____ (react / reaction) to new ideas can be both positive and negative. Therefore, effective (14) _____ (communicate / communication) is necessary. Governments must (15) _____ (explain / explanation) policies clearly so that citizens gain better (16) _____ (understand / understanding). In the end, national success depends on wise (17) _____ (decide / decisions), strong cooperation, and continuous (18) _____ (develop / development). People who actively (19) _____ (participate / participation) in society often contribute to long-term (20) _____ (succeed / success).

