

My Weekend

On Saturday morning, I cleaned my apartment and did some shopping. In the afternoon, I met my friend Lisa, and we went to the park near my house. The weather was warm, so we sat on the grass. I felt happy.

In the evening, I cooked dinner at home. I made pasta and watched a movie. I liked the movie very much and felt happy while watching it. I enjoyed my evening.

On Monday morning, I felt stressed at work. I had many things to do and little time. I prepared a presentation, my phone rang many times, and I had to answer many emails. I felt worried, and my body was not relaxed.

On my way home, I saw an accident. Two cars hit each other on the road. One car had a broken door, and the other car stopped in the middle of the street. People stood near the cars and waited for help. I felt scared when I saw it.

After I got home, I sat down and took a deep breath. I felt calm again and went to bed early.
