

The highest authority in the government	Had the power to pass laws to maintain peace.
The head of Islam	He supervised almost all matters and affairs related to the country
He was also the acting Sultan if the Sultan was absent or away.	The chief advisor to the Sultan
He also had the power to appoint and terminate state representatives	Manage the country's treasury, funding, and taxations.
The chairman during meetings of Brunei leaders.	He scheduled meetings and was responsible for matters related to custom and laws.
He could be promoted to Pengiran Bendahara if there was no other suitable candidate	In charge of defense of the sea.
He led the armed forces and was known as Raja Laut.	He was responsible for trading activities in Brunei especially around river junctions
He was assisted by the cheteria Pengiran Shahbandar.	Act as the communicator between the Sultan, Wazir and Cheteria and the people of Brunei
Help the Wazir in the administration of the country.

Title	Roles
Sultan
Pengiran Bendahara
Pengiran Di Gadong
Pengiran Pemancha
Pengiran Temenggong
Cheteria
Menteri

