

QUANTIFIERS

Quantifiers tell us how much or how many of something there is.

◆ A LOT OF / LOTS OF 🧺🧺🧺🧺

We use it to talk about a BIG quantity.

Example ➡ I have a lot of friends.
There is lots of time to play.

◆ SOME 🍏🍏

We use it to talk about a SMALL quantity in AFFIRMATIVE sentences.

Example ➡ There are some apples in the basket
I have some homework to do

◆ ANY 🚫🚫

We use it to talk about ZERO quantity in NEGATIVE sentences and QUESTIONS.

Example ➡ I don't have any money.
Have you got any brothers?

◆ NOT MUCH / MANY

We use it to talk about a SMALL number or quantity.

- MUCH → UNCOUNTABLE NOUNS 🕒💧
- MANY → COUNTABLE NOUNS 🍋🍋🍋

Example ➡ There aren't many lemons.
I don't have much time.

QUANTIFIERS

◆ TOO MUCH / MANY

We use it when there is more than necessary.

- MUCH → UNCOUNTABLE NOUNS 🕒 💧
- MANY → COUNTABLE NOUNS 🍋 🍋 🍋

Example ➡

She drank too much water.

There are too many books on the table.

◆ ENOUGH ✓

We use it to talk about having the right amount or number of something.

Example ➡

There is enough time to play.

The soup is enough for two people.

◆ NOT ENOUGH ✗

We use it when there is less than we want of something.

Example ➡

There are not enough apples for everyone.

There is not enough bread for breakfast.