

1. Write the correct form of word.

1. Good _____ is important for a successful future.
(educate)
2. She is a very _____ student who always finishes her homework on time.
(work)
3. Passing the final exam was a great _____ for him.
(achieve)
4. Students need more _____ before the test.
(practice)
5. Our teacher always _____ us to ask questions in class.
(encourage)
6. He didn't study enough, so his exam was a _____.
(fail)
7. Online courses have become more _____ in recent years.
(popular)
8. Regular school _____ helps students learn better.
(attend)
9. She hopes to _____ from university next year.
(graduate)
10. Learning a new skill can be very _____.
(help)
11. The lesson was very _____ and easy to understand.
(interest)
12. He showed great _____ in science this term.
(improve)
13. Teachers play an important role in students' _____.
(develop)

3. Fill in the blanks with the correct word from the box. One word won't be used: academic pressure – postpone – well-being – mindfulness – expectations – cramming.

Sophia had always tried to meet the high (1) _____ set by her family. But during the exam season, the intense (2) _____ began to affect her sleep and concentration.

She (3) _____ her group presentation because she felt completely overwhelmed. The night before her biology test, she stayed up late (4) _____, hoping to memorize everything in one go.

By the time she entered the exam room, she (5) _____ too exhausted to focus properly. After that, she began practicing (6) _____ techniques to manage stress and improve her emotional balance.

4. Read the mixed-up short story below. Rearrange the sentences in the correct order.

A. I had studied all week, but when I saw the questions, I still panicked!

B. I stayed up until midnight reviewing everything again.

C. I had forgotten my calculator at home!

D. The exam yesterday was harder than I expected.

E. And to make it worse, I realized something after I sat down.

F. Luckily, my classmate had brought an extra one and let me borrow it.

Reorder the story (for e.g: D-B-...):

5. Do you think homework is necessary for students? Give your opinion and support it with reasons and examples. (at least 250 words):