Look at the picture and read the story. Write some words to complete the sentences about the story. You can use 1, 2, 3 or 4 words.

David's busy morning

It was Saturday morning and David's mother had lots of work to do. David's baby sister, Katy, was only two and a half, and David's father, who was a fireman, always worked at the fire station until midnight. David was fourteen. He liked reading books about animals, reading magazines about computers and watching football on the television. At 11 o'clock, he was lying on the sofa in the living room when his mother came in.

'I want to get some medicine from the chemist's and some fruit and vegetables from the supermarket. Katy is sleeping so I can't take her with me. You can stay here with her, or go to the shops for me. Which job do you want to do?' It was a hot day and David didn't want to go out. 'I'll stay with Katy,' he said. 'That will be easier.'

David's mother left, but Katy only slept for five more minutes, and then she woke up. 'David play with Katy!' she shouted. David gave her some toys, then read her a story. Then he found some paints for her and she painted a picture. After that, he had to tidy Katy's room. When his mother came home, he said, 'I've been very busy and I'm very tired now! I chose the wrong job, Mum!!'
