

Amyl and The Sniffers – Hertz

I wanna go _____ the country
I want to get _____ here
I'm sick of looking at graffiti
On the walls of the grey walls, the city
I want to drive in the countryside
I want the breeze in my hair
I am touching your leg _____
I have my hand in your hand
Take me to the beach
Take me to the country _____ in the backseat
If you love me
Hire me a car
I wanna go driving
Climb in the backseat
That's where you'll find me
I see mosquitoes, they buzz _____
Your hand is in mine
I look out the window, it looks stunning
To see the sun is setting in the sky
Everyone is wavin' out the window
It's like they're excited we _____ here
I _____ by the fish and chips shop
They act like mates, it makes me cheer
[Refrain]
I _____ to love me
Do you love me?
I tell you, time is not linear
Especially when we're _____ in this car
Your hand in my hair
My hand in your hand
I love _____ this fresh air
We stop there right on the road side
I take my shoes _____, ground's _____
The sun is still beaming through the moon
Clouds and stars, I want it all
[Refrain]

Vocabulary

- ✚ hand in hand
- ✚ it makes me cheer
- ✚ right on the roadside
- ✚ sun is setting
- ✚ the breeze in hair
- ✚ to be sick of (doing) something
- ✚ to climb in the backseat
- ✚ to get out of
- ✚ to stop by
- ✚ to take shoes off
- ✚ to take someone to
- ✚ to want it all

Match each image with the phrase that fits it best. Some image(s) may be extra.

Choose the correct option

1. After months in the noisy city, I just want to _____ this hustle and bustle and start over somewhere quiet.
A) stop by
B) get out of
C) take my shoes off
D) climb in the backseat
2. I'm really _____ hearing the same complaints every single day.
A) sick of
B) on the roadside
C) hand in hand
D) meant to be
3. I was driving with the windows down, feeling _____ as the road stretched ahead of us.
A) the sun is setting
B) the breeze in my hair
C) it makes me cheer
D) to want it all
4. They walked along the shore, _____, saying almost nothing.
A) stop by
B) hand in hand
C) right on the roadside
D) B and C are possible
5. He promised to _____ for the weekend, just the two of them.
A) climb in the backseat
B) get out of
C) take her to the beach
D) stop by

6. "Just _____," he said, opening the car door for the kids.

- A) climb in the backseat
- B) stop by
- C) take your shoes off
- D) get out of

7. We stayed there quietly, watching how the _____ behind the hills.

- A) breeze in our hair
- B) sun was setting
- C) makes me cheer
- D) want it all

8. I'll _____ later, I won't stay long.

- A) take you to the country
- B) stop by
- C) get out of
- D) sit on the roadside
- E) all variants are possible

9. Seeing her smile after such a hard day, honestly, _____.

- A) it makes me cheer
- B) I want it all
- C) I'm sick of it
- D) hand in hand
- E) A and C are possible
- F) A and B are possible
- G) B and C are possible
- H) all variants are possible

10. Their car broke down _____, with nothing but fields around.

- A) hand in hand
- B) in the backseat

C) right on the roadside

D) get out of

11. As soon as we got to the sand, the first thing I did was _____.

A) stopping by

B) taking my shoes off

C) getting out of

D) climbing in the backseat

12. He doesn't want a quiet life or simple dreams, he wants success, love, freedom. He _____.

A) wants the breeze in his hair

B) wants to stop by

C) wants it all

D) wants to get out of

Speaking

Imagine you and your partner are planning a spontaneous escape from the city.

1. You suddenly realise you can't stay here anymore.

What exactly do you want to get out of, and why now?

2. There's one routine thing that has drained you completely.

What are you genuinely sick of ?

3. You roll the car windows down.

Describe the moment using the breeze in my hair.

4. You cross the street together without speaking.

Show closeness using hand in hand.

5. One person suggests a destination.

Decide whether to take someone to, and justify the choice.

6. One of the seats in front is smeared.

Who climbs in the backseat, and why does it feel okay?

7. Time is passing.

Describe what the fact that the sun is setting adds to the situation.

8. You notice a small place on the way.

Where do you stop by, and what for?

9. Something minor unexpectedly changes the mood.

What is it, and why does it make you cheer?

10. You pull over without planning it.

What happens right on the roadside?

11. You step out of the car.

Why do you take your shoes off in that moment?

12. Finally, be honest.

What does to want it all mean for you in this trip?