READING

11 Read the article. Match headings A–F with gaps 1–4. There are two extra headings.

1 ____

Have you ever dreamed of opening a restaurant? Some will tell you that it's an impossible dream, but it's actually quite possible as long as you are ready to deal with some difficulties. If you really love what you do, it may be the best step you have ever taken.

2 ____

There are a number of things to think about before you go ahead with your plan. Money is number one. Do you have access to enough to buy furniture and get the necessary supplies? Will you be able to pay your staff during times when there isn't a lot of business? Make sure there is some extra money so you don't have to get stressed about not having enough to keep going.

3 ____

The next thing to consider is how you are going to get lots of customers. Choosing a popular location is key. You may also serve an unusual type of food, or create a look or atmosphere that makes people want to come back. Perhaps offering live music or hanging original art on the walls will fit in with the type of experience you want your customers to have.

4 ____

The final aspect is becoming known to the public. Use social media and traditional advertising to make sure people hear about your restaurant. Organise special events that people will be excited to attend. Most importantly, show how passionate you are about the food you serve, the way you treat customers and the experience you offer. With enough love and dedication, you really can succeed.

- A It can take a lot of money, so be prepared.
- B Opening a restaurant can be easy.
- C There are many ways to get customers to come.
- D There are many reasons why restaurants fail.
- E Where you are and what you offer are important.
- F It may seem impossible, but it can be done.
