FANCY SOME FUN

Here's our guide to the best experiences around now!

A

If you like water sports and excitement, then go Hydrospeeding at Lee Valley White Water Centre! You lie flat in the water and use a special board (a hydrospeed) to go down rapids. Don't worry – you'll get all the equipment you need and a lesson. The experience lasts 90 minutes and costs £45–50.

B

The new Game of Thrones Concert Experience uses the latest technology and a full orchestra and choir to give you an incredible audiovisual experience. Video technology recreates the different places in GoT, together with film clips and new imagery created for the experience – and, of course, the music from the series. They play all your favourite tunes!

C

You need to be fast and use your brain to complete the energetic game of City Dash. Teams run round London and work together to find clues and solve puzzles, while avoiding 'baddies' ('bad guys' who are trying to catch you)! At £20 per person it's not too expensive, and lasts 60 minutes.

D

A Studio Experience is a fantastic choice for anyone who wants to be a top singer or performer. There's a range of options, from band demo recording to guitar tuition and you can even operate the controls. All the sessions are in a fully equipped professional recording studio with an experienced sound engineer.

Discover more about areas of London with City Hunt. Log in with your mobile and play in teams or on your own. Reveal the clues on Google maps, go to each location and solve the clue, then select the right answer on your phone. You could win a prize! It's free and suitable for all ages and abilities.

F

Theatre lovers will enjoy Secret Studio Lab's interactive show. The audience participates in the play and has to judge a man accused of a crime. There's added mystery because the theatre location is secret until you've bought your ticket!

G

Enigma Quest offers a fun hour for teams of 3–5 players who must graduate from wizard school by solving puzzles in different rooms. Each room has clever surprises and you'll enjoy finding the clues. There are some impressive tricks in this magic experience!

H

The ArcelorMittal Orbit sculpture in London has been turned into the world's longest and tallest tunnel slide! At 178 metres long, it takes around 40 seconds to reach the ground – you'll speed down at around 24 kilometres per hour, so it will blow your mind! It's definitely not recommended if you have a fear of heights or claustrophobia. Book early to avoid disappointment.
