

UNIT 3: VERTEBRATES

Drag and drop the boxes to complete the text.

Mammals have covered with .

Most of them have two and four .

Mammals breathe through their .

They give birth to and the babies drink their mother's .

milk

skin

fur

ears

lungs

live young oxygen

legs

Match.

Adults breathe through their lungs. >

They are covered with scales. >

Babies are called fry. >

Babies are called tadpoles. >

They breathe through gills. >

They are covered with bare skin. >

☐ amphibians

☐ fish

