

English in Action: The Present Perfect

Let's talk about cool stuff we've done! With Lic. Gina Tapia.

 LIVEWORKSHEETS

LET'S CHAT!

Have you ever...?

Eaten pizza?

Like, really good pizza with all your favorite toppings?

Traveled to another city?

Visited somewhere new and explored all its secrets?

Played soccer?

Scored a goal or made an awesome save with your friends?

COOL ACHIEVEMENTS

Sometimes, things that happened a while ago are still super important now! It's all about what you've done.

Messi has won eight Ballon d'Ors!

That's like winning the best player award EIGHT times! What an amazing achievement!

CR7 has won five Ballon d'Ors!

Another soccer legend with five of these incredible awards! Their past wins still make them superstars today.

GRAMMAR TIME!

The Present Perfect

This cool tense helps us talk about our life story and what we've experienced!

It's about your
EXPERIEN
CE.

Think about all the fun
things you've done,
seen, or tried!

Not when it happened!

We don't care about the exact time, just that it happened!

The Structure of Present Perfect

The Formula: Subject + Have / Has + Past Participle

- Use "Have" for I, You, We, They.
- Use "Has" for He, She, It.

Examples:

- I have eaten pizza. (Yummy!)
- She has traveled to Quito. (Adventure!)
- We have learned English. (Awesome!)

☐ When you didn't do something, just make have/has negative!
Like, "I haven't seen that movie."

Present Perfect

Subject + Have/Has + Past Participle

Use "Have" for I, We, They

Use "Has" for He, She, It

I have eaten pizza

She has traveled to Quito

Use Has: He, She, It

We have learned English

LET'S PLAY!

English Bingo: Have You Ever...?

Find a classmate who has done these things! It's a great way to practice the Present Perfect!

Eaten ice-cream?	Traveled by bus?	Helped a friend?

Watched a movie in English?	Traveled to another country?

LET'S CHAT!

Our Class Stories!

You've talked to your classmates! Now, share some of the amazing things you've discovered they've done. Use the Present Perfect!

Someone has...

Who in our class has visited another country? Tell us about it!

I learned that...

Write something that you discovered about a classmate

We have a friend who hasn't....

Who has a unique experience they haven't tried yet?

CHALLENGE ACCEPTED!

Verb Workout: Base to Past Participle!

Let's practice! Transform these common verbs from their base form to the past participle. You've got this!

Base Form

- Eat
- See
- Go
- Do
- Write
- Read
- Drink
- Speak

Past Participle

The Golden Rule!

Always remember, the Present Perfect is all about the awesome experiences you've collected, not the exact moment they happened!

Life Experience

Present Perfect

"I have eaten pizza."

"I have been to Quito."

Focus: THE EXPERIENCE (Life).

@ Specific Time

Past Simple

"I ate pizza yesterday."

"I went to Quito last year."

Focus: WHEN it happened.

You've Got This!

Keep practicing your Present Perfect and share all your cool experiences with the world!

Practice More!

Ask a Question