

Unit 6. Our Digital Life

Listening Section

Listen to your teammate and take notes:

|                                                                                                       |  |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
| 1.What is social engineering, and how is it different from other types of cybercrime like hacking?    |  |
| 2.What are some common examples of social engineering scams mentioned in the text?                    |  |
| 3.According to the paragraph, what can people do to protect themselves from social engineering scams? |  |