My friend Seb was really depressed when he discovered that Gillian was going out with another boy behind his back. He decided to end their relationship. He felt really disappointed in her because when they met he really liked her – there was an instant attraction. Anyway, he decided not to do anything without her knowledge, so he asked her what the situation was. And here's the surprise! Gillian said she was really in love with him, and she wasn't seeing any other boy. The boy was her cousin Tommy, and they were planning a surprise birthday party for Seb!
