HOLIDAY ADVERTS – what they really mean

Do holiday adverts always tell the truth?
Not exactly, but the truth is there if you look carefully. Here are a few of our favourites:

'Go on a working holiday in Greece.
A fantastic opportunity for a cheap holiday.'

What it means: You work for nothing and even have to pay to work!

'Perfect holiday town. You don't need transport. [1]_____ foot to all the sights.'

What it means: This is a very small town with only one or two sights to visit.

'[2]_____ six-day tour of Europe and see the sights. You [3]_____ coach and you don't pay for accommodation.'

What it means: You spend most of the six days and nights on the coach.

'You can now [4]_____ fast train from the airport to the city centre in just fifteen minutes or, a cheaper option is to [5]_____ bus.'

What it means: The train is very expensive.

5 Complete the text with one word in each gap. The first letters are given.

Hi Jo,

You asked me about places to stay. There's an expensive 4-star hotel. It's got a swimming pool and a nice restaurant but we can't stay there! There are some g_____ and b_____ and b_____ places but they are small with only three or four rooms. I'm worried about coming back late at night or making a noise. I don't want to stay somewhere which is just like being at home!

Another idea is to stay on a c_____. I've got a tent but what about rain? I think the best place to stay is the local y_____ _____. There are rooms for four or eight people. It's a good way to meet interesting people and it's very cheap.

What do you think?
Rebecca

REMEMBER BETTER

The verb go can be followed by many different prepositions.

Go to (a place)
Go with (a person)
Go for (a length of time)
Go by (transport)
Go in (a month/year)
Go on (a day/date)
Go at (a time)

In order to memorise those different combinations of go* + preposition, think of a holiday and write sentences about it using all the phrases above.

Answer the questions about a holiday so they are true for you.

My holiday:

1 Where did you go to?
I went to ...

2 Who did you go with?
I went with ...

3 How long did you go for?

4 Did you go by car or some other form of transport?

5 Which month did you go in?

6 Which day of the week did you go on?

7 Did you go at night or at some other time?

Holiday memories

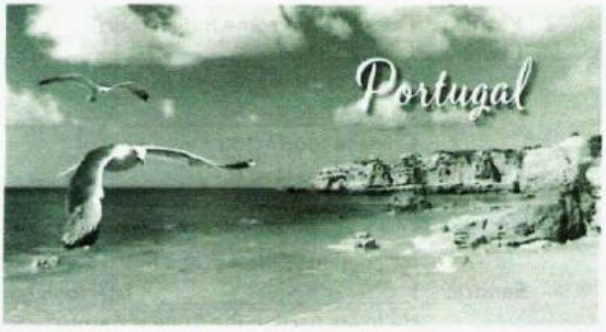

Last year, my friends and I went to Portugal. We travelled by plane. When we arrived, we got a [1]_____ from the airport to the [2]_____ where we stayed. It was very big and right next to the sea. The town was a nice size and we went to the beach and the shops on [3]_____ .

It wasn't expensive, so we had some money to spend. We [4]_____ around on motorbikes and visited the [5]_____ . We had a great time but, really, it was a [6]_____ holiday – lying in the sun and swimming in the sea. The only problem was that there was only one restaurant in the area and we couldn't [7]_____ a reservation. Some days we waited an hour for a free table but the food was delicious.

On the last day, we [8]_____ a local market and bought some clothes and souvenirs. We were worried the next day because we forgot to book [9]_____ for the journey back to the airport but it was OK. There were three free places at the back.

All in all, it was a wonderful time.
We're going again this year. Sally booked the [10]_____ last week.

Travel PROBLEMS

Travelling should be an exciting, relaxing, pleasant activity but sometimes, it is none of these things. Here are some true travel horror stories.

A few years ago, a couple from England booked a bargain flight to the Caribbean online. It was from the local airport in Birmingham to the island of Trinidad. At the airport, there was no information about the flight on any of the departure boards, so they went to ask at the information desk. That's when they discovered why the flight was so cheap. It was from Birmingham, Alabama in the USA, which is much closer to the Caribbean than Birmingham, UK.

The moment you are up in the air, you can relax – yes? Not always. On a flight from Newark to Denver, one passenger decided to relax and tried to use her reclining seat. Unfortunately, the man in the seat behind her wanted to work on his laptop and he used a special gadget called a 'knee defender' to stop the seat from moving down. The woman asked him to remove it. He refused. She threw a cup of water over him. The plane stopped in Chicago, left the two passengers there and continued its journey.

If travelling by plane is too stressful, why not take the train? A man from Darlington, in England, read that it was cheaper to buy a ticket to Durham than Darlington. Strangely, Durham was farther away. He thought it was OK, so, he bought a ticket and got off one stop early. When station staff checked his ticket, they said it was for the wrong station, and asked him to pay £155 extra!

For sure, the Eurostar train from London to Paris or Brussels is a nice way to travel? Not always. In December 2009, several trains stopped in the tunnel. One family said that there were no lights, no air conditioning, no food and no water on their train. After several hours, they got off and walked through the tunnel to find another train which was warmer. Fortunately, no-one told them they had the wrong ticket.

Finally, a story about ferry travel. During a bad storm one winter, the ferry from Portsmouth to Bilbao spent 36 hours at sea. Eventually, it came into a harbour – in Brest, northern France. Unfortunately, it was also Christmas Eve and there were no ferries back to the UK until after the holidays. Passengers were left in Brest, 1000 km from Bilbao. Their only choices were to find a local hotel, rent a car and drive all night or try to get to an airport and a very expensive, last-minute flight. Happy Christmas!

DEPARTURES

TIME	DESTINATION	FLIGHT	GATE	REMARKS
12:39	LONDON	BA 903	31	CANCELLED
12:57	SYDNEY	QF5723	27	CANCELLED
13:08	TORONTO	AC5984	22	CANCELLED
13:21	TOKYO	JL 608	41	DELAYED
13:37	HONG KONG	CX5471	29	CANCELLED

Of course, events like these don't happen very often. For most of us, journeys are still relaxing – except for queues, delays, security checks, strikes and Icelandic volcanoes, of course.

GLOSSARY

remove (v) – to take something away from, out of, or off the place where it is stressful (adj) – something that makes you worry a lot harbour (n) – an area of water next to the land where the water is calm, so that ships are safe when they are inside it delay (n) – a period of time when something happens more slowly than you expected, or the length of the waiting time

17/7 Holiday Day 1 (and 2)

I was very happy when I booked a last-minute flight to Turkey. It was a great deal – £150 cheaper than the normal price. But the journey was terrible! What a nightmare! I got to the airport early and, of course, went to look at the departure [1]_____ to see where to check in. Next to my flight number, it said: Please go to the information [2]_____ . So, I went and asked what was wrong. They said: The flight is leaving tomorrow at 5 a.m.! I decided to go home but the ticket office at the railway station was closed. The station [3]_____ didn't know why. I bought a ticket on the train – it cost £10 extra. The next day, I got to the airport at 3 a.m. There were lots of security [4]_____ . Take your boots off, take your belt off. You know the sort of thing. At last I got on the plane. I sat down with a cup of coffee from the airport. I put it on the tray and then the person in front of me suddenly put her [5]_____ seat down. My coffee fell onto my jeans and I couldn't move.

REMEMBER THIS

We form regular adverbs by adding -ly to an adjective. Adverbs describe:

- how activities expressed by verbs are done, e.g. Suddenly,
- when the events in a sentence happened, e.g. Finally,
- our feelings about the events that are talked about, e.g.

Unfortunately – it is/was unfortunate or unlucky,
Strangely – it is/was strange,
Eventually – in the end, after a long time,
Amazingly / Surprisingly – it is/was surprising,
Hopefully – with hope that something will happen, etc.
