

2Match the words on the left to the appropriate definitions.*One example is done for you.*h 1. garish

a. producing a loud and deep sound

2. cryptic

b. involving lots of energy and emotion

3. jaw-dropping

c. colorless, dull

4. flawless

d. very unusual, unlike others

5. eccentric

e. perfect

6. sonorous

f. unclear, hidden

7. passionate

g. shocking, very surprising

8. drab

h. too bright or colorful

3Use the words from Exercise 2 to complete the sentences.*One example is done for you.

a. The singer came on stage dressed in a bright pink outfit with a green wig.

It was garish!

b. The woman stood up and spoke loudly showing all her emotions.

It was a very _____ speech.

c. As we walked through the forest, we could hear the sound of the waterfall.

It was loud and _____.

d. We arrived at the cottage which was old and gray and looked quite _____.

e. He enjoyed dressing in old-fashioned clothes and liked to ride a unicycle around the park. He was really _____.

f. The painting was difficult to understand and included strange signs and symbols.

It was a _____ piece of art.

g. When Banksy's painting started to shred itself, it was a _____ moment.

h. The portrait was extremely life-like. The detail was _____.