

___ is used for times and with time, weekend and night. He's travelling to Costa Rica ___ the weekend.		on ___ is used for other parts of the day and months, seasons and years. The factory was built ___ 2017. ___ can also be used to indicate how long something took. I finished the report ___ two hours.		from ...until ___ is used for days. We're meeting ___ Monday morning.		during ___ is used to answer the question 'How long ...?' We were negotiating the contract ___ three days.		within ___ is used to answer the question 'When ...?' The equipment was damaged ___ the power surge.		at ___ are used to mark the beginning and end of a period. We worked ___ 6 in the morning ___ 10 in the evening.		by ___ is used to express the idea of 'less than'. The task must be completed ___ two hours.		in ___ is used to express the idea of 'some time before'. I assure you that the final product will be ready ___ Friday.		for