

Activity 1: Fill in the blanks with words below.

lively willing overwhelming

adapt settle in wind down

1. When I first moved to a big city, the constant noise felt .
2. Even though it's hard to change, I'm trying to to the new school schedule.
3. The town festival was so ; there was music, dancing and fireworks all night.
4. After a busy day, I like to by reading a book or listening to music.
5. It took us a few weeks to really after moving to our new house, but now it feels like home.
6. I'm always to learn about different cultures and try new foods.

Activity 2: Check the correct form of the verb in these sentences about adapting to new situations.

1. She's getting used to / being used to studying for three hours a day.
2. He was used to / was getting used to the quiet countryside before he moved to the city.
3. Will you be used to / get used to the new schedule by next month?
4. We weren't used to / weren't getting used to speaking English at work, but now it's normal.
5. Are you getting used to / being used to going to the gym every morning?

Activity 3: Spot the mistake and write the correct sentence below.

1. I am used to eat dinner very late every night.

2. He is get used to his new school abroad.