

When do I need to use a?

1. Tick the correct sentence in each pair.

- a) I went to party last night.
b) I went to a party last night.
- a) Oxford is a very old city.
b) Oxford is very old city.

GRAMMAR

1. Ми використовуємо a з однією злічуваних іменників.

I want to buy a camera for my mother.

2. Ми використовуємо an перед однією злічуваних іменників, що починаються на голосні звуки (a, e, i, o)

I eat an apple every day.

3. Ми використовуємо a та an перед прикметником + іменником

Budapest is a beautiful city. It's an interesting place.

4. Ми НЕ використовуємо a або an перед прикметником, якщо немає іменника

Budapest is a beautiful city. It's an interesting place because it's old.

5. Ми використовуємо an перед більшістю слів, що починаються на літеру u

an umbrella an uncle an uncomfortable chair an ugly building

6. Ми використовуємо a (не an) з такими словами (винятки): unit, uniform, usage, useful, united

We're studying a unit about 'a' and 'an'. I don't wear a uniform at work. A dishwasher is a useful machine.

2. Correct the mistake.

I'm staying _____ hotel.

3. Rewrite the end of the sentences using the words in brackets. Use a or an.

1. Keanu Reeves is famous. (actor) → _____

2. Spain is interesting. (country) → _____
3. It was fantastic! (match) → _____
4. London is expensive. (city) → _____
5. My best friend is lazy. (person) → _____
6. That's great! (idea) → _____
7. I live in a block of flats. (ugly) → _____
8. Who's good? (student) → _____