

1 Complete the sentences with the correct future form of the verbs in brackets.

0 You look busy. Shall I make (I / make) dinner this evening?

1 I _____ (have) lunch at that new restaurant tomorrow. I've already made a reservation.

2 I'm using a new recipe, but I think the pie _____ (be) very tasty.

3 I have to leave! I _____ (meet) Tim at the farmer's market in twenty minutes.

4 'This sauce isn't cooking properly.' 'Don't worry, I _____ (help) you with it.'

5 My train _____ (leave) at seven in the morning.

6 You need to lower the heat! The omelette _____ (burn).

7 You can come shopping with me on Friday unless you _____ (have) something else to do.

2 Complete the text with the correct future form of the words in brackets.

Hi Paul,

Just a quick email to <sup>0</sup>tell (tell) you my plans.

My flight <sup>1</sup> _____ (arrive) at Gatwick tomorrow at 3 p.m., and I <sup>2</sup> _____

_____ (probably / take) the Tube to central London. I <sup>3</sup> _____

(check in) at my hotel first, and then I

<sup>4</sup> _____ (meet) the manager of the restaurant at six o'clock. If you

<sup>5</sup> _____ (be) free at 7:30 or so, we can meet up at Café Mez for a coffee. Oh, I just remembered that I printed out that information about the cooking course you asked for, so I <sup>6</sup> _____ (put) it in my bag right now. One more thing.

<sup>7</sup> _____ (I / invite) Kelly to meet us at the café? I know she's sorry for arguing with you, and from what I can see she <sup>8</sup> _____ (not cause) any more trouble. Looking forward to seeing you!

Kate