

1. Read and write YES or NO.

1. Countries in the temperate climate zone has four seasons.

2. A desert is a place with little or no rain.

3. Places in Polar climate zone are dark the whole year.

4. There are six main climate zones on Earth.

5. Countries in the polar climate zone are still cold in the summer.

6. Weather describes the usual climate of a place over many years and it influences the plants and animals that we find there.

7. Temperate climates usually have winters that aren't very cold and summers that aren't very hot.

8. Tropical climates are hot and humid all year.

9. North and South Poles are in the temperate climate zone.

10. Equator is an imaginary line which starts from the North Pole and ends at the South Pole.

2. Read the conversation in the Math class and fill the correct words in the blanks.

hour minute months multiply noon second time zone year

There are 60 _____ an hour. How many _____ are there in a minute?

There are 60.

Correct. How can we calculate the number of seconds in an hour?

We _____ 60 times 60 to get the answer. So there are 3,600 seconds in an _____.

There are 30 or 31 days in most _____.

Yes. How many months are there in a _____?

There are 12.

Exactly! Does anyone know how many time zones there are?

There are 24 _____, one for each hour of the day.

Well done! When it's _____ in New York, what time is it in California?

It's 9:00 a.m.

5. Look at the pictures and write the story using the simple past tense. Write more than 150 words.

