

TEST 2

I. Find the word which has different stress pattern from that of the others.

1. A. organic	B. delicious	C. serious	D. domestic
2. A. direction	B. industry	C. encourage	D. effective
3. A. fantastic	B. official	C. musician	D. physical
4. A. publicity	B. decoration	C. operation	D. expedition
5. A. electrical	B. academic	C. education	D. beneficial

II. Write the correct form of the word in brackets.

1. A good travel guide will tell you about the most famous _____ landmarks in each city you visit. (history)
2. Buckingham Palace, the residence of the British Royal Family, is _____ in central London. (locate)
3. Visitors are not allowed to _____ restricted areas of the historical site. (entrance)
4. Learning English can be helpful for _____ who want to find work or study in another country. (immigrate)
5. Although English is a global language, some people still _____ to learn it because they think it's difficult. (hesitation)
6. If your _____ flight is delayed, it's important to inform your hotel about your late. (arrive)
7. A healthy river ecosystem is full of fish species, each _____ with a unique role in the environment. (diversity)
8. After living in the us for several years, Kien can now understand and speak English _____. (fluent)
9. Many countries have a large population where English is _____ as a second language. (speak)
10. At the airport, you showed your passport to the officer to verify your _____. (nation)

III. Choose the underlined part A, B, C or D that needs correction.

1. Have you heard anything which might interest us in the city?

A. Have B. heard C. which D. interest us

2. We met a local guide who explained the history and significant of Cu Chi Tunnels.
A. met B. who C. explained D. significant
3. Vietnamese coffee, to whom many people are addicted, is a strong and delicious brew.
A. Vietnamese B. whom C. are addicted D. a strong
4. My favorite nation park is Phong Nha-Ke Bang, whose caves hold incredible formations.
A. nation B. whose C. hold D. formations
5. Ha Long Bay is the most beautiful place where I've ever seen in Vietnam.
A. is B. most C. where D. ever seen
6. There is many amazing beaches in Vietnam, some of which are perfect for surfing.
A. is B. amazing C. some of which D. surfing
7. We tried some famous street food that we founded in Ho Chi Minh City.
A. tried B. street C. that D. founded
8. After exploring the Mekong Delta, we felt a deep appreciation for the people who livelihood depends on the river.
A. exploring B. felt C. for D. who
9. Vietnam boasts numerous national parks, of where Cat Tien National Park is known for its rich biodiversity.
A. boasts B. where C. is known D. its.
10. The Mekong Delta is one of the most fertile region in Southeast Asia that produces a wide variety of fruits.
A. The B. one of the C. region D. that produces

IV. Choose the best answers to complete the dialogue.

Sarah: Wow, Michael, this market is incredible! So many fresh fruits and vegetables. I've never even seen before.

Michael: (1) _____ It's a great way to support local farmers and get some unique ingredients.

1.

- A. Really? I love coming here.
B. Ugh, really? I dread coming here.
C. Honestly, I was hoping for something better.
D. Oh, that's a shame. I was hoping to avoid coming here.

Sarah: Definitely. Look at these beautiful purple potatoes! Have you ever cooked with them?

Michael: (2) _____ We could also get some of those fresh herbs for your famous pesto.

2.

- A. I don't think that's really our thing.
- B. I've heard mixed reviews, so I'm a bit hesitant.
- C. No, I haven't, but maybe we should try them this week.
- D. Actually, I tried them already and wasn't impressed.

Sarah: Excellent idea! And, oh my goodness, they have fresh lavender! (3) _____ You know, lavender sachet adds fragrance to your closets or drawers.

3.

- A. Unfortunately, I'm allergic to lavender.
- B. I could make some homemade sachets.
- C. I'm all out of fabric scraps, so crafting sachets wouldn't be possible.
- D. My lavender isn't dried, so making sachets is out of the question.

Michael: Perfect for a summery touch! Hey, aren't those the bakers who make that amazing sourdough bread?

Sarah: They are! We should definitely grab a loaf while we're here. (4) _____ 4.

- A. It's perfect for toast or sandwiches.
- B. This spread is too dry for toast or sandwiches.
- C. For a delicious toast or sandwich, look elsewhere.
- D. It lacks flavor and wouldn't be enjoyable on toast or sandwiches.

Michael: Absolutely. Maybe we can even convince them to share their secret recipe!

Sarah: Now that might be a long shot, but it wouldn't hurt to ask politely.

Michael: (5) _____ You get these amazing products, but also a sense of community, you know?

5.

- A. I dislike the uncertainty of quality at local markets.

- B. I find exploring unfamiliar vendors exhausting.
- C. I find the crowds and noise at local markets unappealing.
- D. This is why I love exploring local markets.

Sarah: Totally. It's nice to chat with the vendors, learn about where the food comes from, and support small businesses.

Michael: Exactly. Plus, there's always something interesting to see. (6) _____

6.

- A. There's nothing interesting here.
- B. Seems like the pottery market is empty today.
- C. Look at that lady selling handmade pottery!
- D. Looks like that pottery stand is closed for the day.

Sarah: Wow, those mugs are beautiful! Maybe we could find a nice one as a souvenir for your mom's birthday.

Michael: Great idea! She loves handmade things. And hey, they're selling fresh local honey!

Sarah: Oh perfect, I was just running out. This honey has much better flavor.

(7) _____

7.

- A. I wouldn't recommend local honey.
- B. Local honey is the best.
- C. Local honey is just too expensive.
- D. Skip the local stuff, imported honey is my choice.

Michael: This market has everything! Fresh food, unique crafts, a chance to meet local people... it's a tourist experience without even leaving the city.

Sarah: You're absolutely right. Maybe next weekend we could explore a different neighborhood market. (8) _____ 8.

- A. Don't expect any more exciting finds there.
- B. It's unlikely there are any hidden gems remaining.

- C. We'll see what treasures we find there next.
- D. We shouldn't hold our breath for more treasures.

Michael: Sounds great! This is definitely a more authentic way to experience the city, don't you think?

Sarah: Absolutely.

V. Read the passage and write one or two words in the blank.

The Colosseum, also known as the Flavius Colosseum, is an oval amphitheater in the center of Rome, Italy. It is the largest amphitheater ever built and could hold an estimated 50,000 to 80,000 spectators. Construction began in 70 AD and was completed in 80 AD under the emperors Vespasian and Titus.

The Colosseum was used for gladiatorial contests, animal hunts, mock sea battles, and theatrical performances. These events were seen as a way to entertain the public and to demonstrate the power of the Roman Empire. The last gladiatorial games were held in the 5th century AD, and the Colosseum continued to be used for animal hunts until the 7th century AD.

Today, the Colosseum is one of the most popular tourist attractions in Rome. Visitors can explore the different levels of the amphitheater and imagine the crowds that once cheered for gladiators and wild animals. The Colosseum is a symbol of Roman engineering and a reminder of the violent entertainment of the past.

1. The Colosseum is located in the _____ of Rome, Italy.
2. _____ of the Colosseum began under the emperors Vespasian and Titus.
3. Some types of events held at the Colosseum are gladiatorial contests, mock sea battles, and _____.
4. The events were held to celebrate victories, entertain the public, and _____.
5. Today, the Colosseum is a symbol of Roman _____, past violence, and gladiatorial combat.

VI. Combine the two given sentences using a relative pronoun in the brackets.

1. My friend is a travel agent. She can help you plan your trip. (who)
→ My friend

2. There are many dialects of English. They include American English. (which)

→ There are

3. We visited a national park. Its endangered animals are well protected. (whose)

→ We visited

4. I'm learning a new language. It will help me travel the world. (that)

→ I'm learning

5. Tourists visit Vietnam. Vietnam is famous for its delicious food. (which)

→ Tourists

6. William Shakespeare is a famous writer. His plays are still performed today. (whose)

→ William Shakespeare