

GERUND / "TO " INFINITIVE

1. Choose the correct answer.

1. I admire Greta Thunberg for fighting / to fight for the environment.
2. Teaching / To teach is a way of influencing the lives of young people.
3. It's too cold to play / playing football outside today.
4. Will you try to come / coming to my concert, please?
5. Stop to make / making noise, please. You'll wake up your little sister.
6. Does anyone feel like going / to go for a walk?

2. Complete the sentences with the verbs below. Use the gerund or infinitive form.

clean • hear • not show • ride • miss • wait

1. My brother and I offered _____ the house this weekend.
2. _____ for the bus is so boring!
3. I'm sorry for _____ my appointment, Dr Cummings.
4. Brad wants _____ his bike to school today.
5. We promised _____ the photos to anyone.
6. It's wonderful _____ that you passed all your exams!

3. Complete both sentences with the same verb in bold. Use the gerund or infinitive form.

talk

- a. When the head teacher came into the room, everyone stopped _____.
- b. The head teacher stopped _____ to students in the corridor.

visit

- a. _____ the Taj Mahal last year was incredible!
- b. Don't forget _____ our website for more information.

meet

- a. I must remember _____ Nick and Allie after school today.
- b. I'm sorry. I don't remember _____ you before. What's your name again?

4. Complete the sentences with the verbs below. Use gerunds or infinitives. Tick the sentence that can take both a gerund and an infinitive.

be • meet • raise • receive • upload • write

1. According to actress Emma Watson, _____ a role model is difficult.
2. To have a popular channel, it's important _____ new content regularly.
3. In 1882, Christine Ladd-Franklin wasn't allowed _____ a degree just because she was a woman.
4. He looks forward to _____ Kylian Mbappé, the famous footballer.
5. Have you thought about _____ a letter to the mayor?
6. She has begun _____ money for developing her invention.

