

A7-A8

1. The child is easily bored (1) and often does mistakes (2) in his homework (3), it's a pity (4) he doesn't enjoy studying (5).
2. The mysterious man who painted (1) beautiful pictures made it for a living (2), even though (3) he was already in his fifties (4) when he started his career (5).
3. A number of students (1) have lent books (2) from the library (3), which (4) have just been renovated over the summer (5).
4. It is little to choose (1) from on the menu (2) if you are vegetarian, but either side of the restaurant (3) offers (4) a very exciting view (5) of the ocean.
5. The news was (1) worried (2) because dozens of people (3) lost their jobs, but my sister made a choice (4) to go back to university (5) and retrain.
6. In spite of reading (1) over a hundred articles (2), Maria could not finish her project (3), so (4) her professor helped her make research online (5).
7. There has been a pleasure (1) watching the millions of fireflies (2) in the garden (3), especially when we saw a smile of hers (4) as she watched them (5).
8. There was a small shop (1) which goods (2) were all made by local artists (3), except for the pottery (4), which was clearly someone else's work (5).
9. Despite (1) buying the expensive tickets of theirs (2), the frightening visitors (4) left the horror maze (4) after only five minutes (5).
10. The students whose results (1) were poor (2) even on the twentieth attempt (3) felt finally happy (4) when the teacher borrowed them her notes (5).
11. Surprisingly (1), half of the reptiles (2) who live (3) in the zoo have already lain eggs (4), which is great news (5).
12. The architects which (1) presented only a few designs (2) still made a contribution (3) to the new city park project so that (4) people could have a good time there (5).