

B4-B6

1. Neither my brother ... my sister has blue eyes; they both have brown.
2. A lot of money ... spent on advertising during the World Cup.
3. She's determined to finish the race, no matter ... it takes.
4. What ... they doing when the power went out last night?
5. Most of my clothes ... made from cotton or recycled materials.
6. The whole journey took less ... two hours.
7. The news ... announced by the president earlier this morning.
8. We can either watch a movie at home ... go out for dinner tonight.
9. Two sheep ... been grazing in the field all afternoon.
10. While he ... cooking dinner, he listened to a podcast.
11. No matter ... hard I try, I just can't seem to open this jar.
12. She is both intelligent ... very hard-working.
13. The police ... been investigating the robbery for several months.
14. Please be quiet so as ... to wake the baby.
15. Some deer ... seen crossing the road near the forest yesterday.
16. What games ... you use to play when you were a child?
17. Mathematics ... taught as a core subject in all schools.
18. I left the party early so as ... catch the last train home.
19. Dark chocolate is not as rich in sugar ... milk chocolate.
20. Who ... the dishes in your house, you or your flatmate?
21. She's practising the piano every day in order ... pass her grade exam.
22. No matter ... you go in the city, you'll find great coffee shops.
23. The film was no longer ... ninety minutes, which was perfect.