

Future Tense: Will vs be going to

Exercise 1: Write the correct form of the verbs using "will/won't"

1. She will come (come) tomorrow.
2. Peter will travel (travel) around Europe next year.
3. The kids will play (play) in the garden.
4. The Browns will not visit (not visit) us this summer.
5. Will we go (we/go) to the theatre next Sunday?
6. The exams will be (be) in June.
7. Will I get (I/get) you something to drink?
8. They will not finish (not/finish) the Geography project in two days.
9. He will call (call) me tomorrow afternoon.
10. Will you try (you/try) harder next time?

Exercise 2: Write the correct form of the verbs using "be going to"

1. Julia is going to do (do) the washing up today.
2. Martha is going to visit (visit) her grandparents in the country.
3. Philip and you are going to win (win) the football match tomorrow.
4. We are going to do (do) these exercises tomorrow.
5. The girls are going to bring (bring) some food to the party.
6. My uncle is going to water (water) the flowers.
7. My mother is going to feed (feed) the cat.
8. That train is going to leave (leave) the station in a few minutes.
9. We are going to spend (spend) a week in London.
10. They are going to join (join) the volley ball team.

Exercise 3: Choose the correct answer

1. Oh look! It is going to snow/ will snow soon.
2. Mai is going to have/ will have Maths on Monday morning. It's in the timetable.
3. Please help me with this exercise! I promise I am going to buy/will buy you some snacks.
4. I think our team is going to win/ will win the match.
5. In 2055 robots are going to be/ will be our teachers.
6. Tonight we are going to have/ will have a birthday party for my brother.
7. I feel so hot. I am going to open/ will open the window now.
8. My friends are going to go/ will go to the park this afternoon.
9. I think he is going to pass/ will pass the English test.
10. He already bought the ticket. He is going to watch/ will watch the film tomorrow.
11. Be careful! You are going to drop/ will drop the dishes.
12. We are going to visit/ will visit our grandparents this summer holiday.