

To: dotsummers@quickmail.com

Subject: Lightning!

Hi Grandma!

My class learned all about lightning at school today. Our teacher told us about this man, Roy C. Sullivan, who had very bad luck. From 1942 to 1977 he was struck by lightning seven different times! That's more than anyone else in the world!

Roy worked in a national park. He was standing on a high tower in the park when he was first hit with lightning. Years later, he was driving along a road when lightning struck him again. Lightning hit him five more times.

Roy was unlucky, but he was also lucky. It's very dangerous to be struck by lightning. He was never badly hurt, though. You and I can be even luckier than Roy. At school I learned how to protect myself from being struck by lightning. I'll tell you how in my next email.

Love,

Emilio

Reading Skill

The word about is a basic sight word. Sight words are words you see a lot when you read.

54-56