SAMPLE TEST 2

1.

Although the city invested heavily in public transport, traffic congestion continued to worsen because _____ pollution from private cars kept increasing.
A. vehicular
B. diplomatic
C. episodic
D. generic

2.

Since the government wanted to protect domestic industries, it introduced several _____ that limited foreign competition.
A. retaliations
B. protectionist legislations
C. breakthroughs
D. disciplines

3.

Although the proposal initially seemed unreasonable, further analysis showed that it might actually _____ inflation over time.
A. curb
B. flourish
C. infiltrate
D. transcend

4.

Because the organization lacked strong leadership, its ambitious plans gradually began to _____ confusion and internal conflict.
A. prevail over
B. devolve into
C. usher in
D. rally against

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5.

Although the two countries compete economically, they still maintain strong _____ relations through international organizations.
A. militant
B. diplomatic
C. charismatic
D. ethnocentric

6.

Since the scientist wanted to test her theory objectively, she relied on data that had been _____ collected through repeated experiments.
A. vaguely
B. strategically
C. empirically
D. cynically

7.

Although the reform aimed to promote fairness, critics argued that its benefits were _____ distributed among different social groups.
A. disproportionate
B. fluid
C. conventional
D. pivotal

8.

Because the entrepreneur was highly _____ about market trends, he invested in technology long before it became popular.
A. militant
B. savvy
C. deferential
D. vague

9.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

While the disease may remain hidden during the early stages, the virus can still _____ within the body and cause damage later.
A. lie dormant
B. flourish
C. prevail
D. diffuse

10.

Although the factory followed basic safety procedures, workers were still exposed to _____ chemicals that could damage their lungs.
A. hazardous
B. tangible
C. equivalent
D. fluid

11.

Since the project required a large investment, the company carefully evaluated the _____ before committing its resources.
A. ritual
B. opportunity cost
C. hierarchy
D. ambiguity

12.

Although the speech was intended to unite the audience, some remarks actually managed to _____ several important supporters.
A. cultivate
B. galvanize
C. alienate
D. emulate

13.

Because the disease spreads rapidly in crowded areas, a sudden _____ can overwhelm hospitals within days.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

A. revival
B. outbreak
C. precursor
D. doctrine

14.

Although the theory was widely debated, many scholars agreed that it had some intellectual _____.
A. merit
B. filtration
C. proximity
D. precipitation

15.

Since the new technology could be easily expanded to different industries, investors considered it highly _____.
A. conventional
B. scalable
C. militant
D. episodic

16.

Although the student had strong _____ ability, she still needed practice to improve her analytical writing skills.
A. inherent
B. retaliatory
C. nonreplicating
D. pathogenic

17.

Because the organization operates globally, it must comply with _____ regulations that are stricter than those of individual countries.
A. vague
B. generic

LIVEWORKSHEETS

C. stringent
D. fluid

18.

Although the air quality seemed acceptable, scientists discovered that _____ particles were still present at dangerous levels.
A. milestone
B. fine particulate
C. doctrine
D. hierarchy

19.

Since the company relied heavily on imported materials, sudden trade restrictions could seriously _____ its production capacity.
A. mitigate
B. impair
C. transcend
D. cultivate

20.

Although the scientist presented convincing arguments, some critics claimed that her conclusions were still too _____ and lacked precise evidence.
A. vague
B. pivotal
C. analogous
D. charismatic

LIVEWORKSHEETS