

Coastal Processes

Section A - Fill in the blanks with the correct answers

1. The area lying between the land and sea is known as _____.
2. The _____ is the zone between the lowest water mark and the highest water mark reached by storm waves.
3. Coasts are shaped by the processes of _____, _____ and deposition.

Section B - Look at the diagram below and answer the questions.

- a) What causes wave to form?

- b) What number is the wave length? _____

- c) What number is the trough? _____

- d) What happens when the waves meet the shore?

e) What is the name for the forward movement of water up the beach?

f) What is meant by the 'fetch'?
