Types of Tourism

1. _____

This kind of tourism is also referred to as grief tourism that involves visiting those places and sites, which have been witnesses to some of the major tragedies in history. Apart from their tragic histories of human suffering and bloodshed, most of these locations are also popular for their historical value. The curious human mind is often more attracted to places that are associated with things far from normal, and hence, sites bearing violent pasts have become popular tourist destinations, receiving a large inflow of visitors year after year.

2. _____

If you're a European citizen over 25 then there's a good chance you remember this term, which in reality was politically motivated. The phrase “benefit tourism” was invented in the 1990s. It was later used for the perceived threat that a huge number of citizens from the new, poorer nations who were given membership in the EU would move to the richer states such as France or Sweden to benefit from their social welfare systems rather than work.

3. _____

Tolkien tourism has become a growing trend thanks to the huge success of the “Lord of the Rings” books and films. It has expanded and diversified to such an extent that now it offers enough places to visit so that even the most detailed curiosity of the most demanding Tolkien fan is sure to be satisfied. That makes New Zealand the best hotspot because it's the main location where the films were shot.

4. _____

The name “shark tourism” says it all, and you probably can't get a scarier or more dangerous type of tourism than this. Shark tourism is actually a subgenre of another type of tourism – ecotourism. It attracts all these people who love sharks and their bloody jaws. Anything related to the Great White shark (and other) is what's on offer. Experienced divers and protective cages are must-haves for this adventurous kind of tourism.

5. _____

A fascination with ghosts drives some people to travel in search of the paranormal. Behind many famous landmarks is a great ghost story and indeed, popular tours in places like Dublin, Florida, Quebec City and Brisbane explore historic, “haunted” city quarters. Locations of “ghost tourism” include proverbial ghost towns across America, Canada and Australia as well as notorious places like Jonestown, Guyana, and parts of Transylvania.

Space Tourism of the Future

It is not a secret that millions of people have a dream to experience space travel. There are many different reasons what attract them in the outer space. It is found that “since the early days of science fiction in the 1930s, the image of space flight as adventurous and exciting has played a growing role in popular culture”. Besides, those people who have already visited space state that it provides a highly enjoyable life experience. It is so pleasant to have the view of the Earth and stars and have the fascinating experience of living in the so called zero gravity. That is why space tourism will be one of the highly-valued industries in the nearest future. Some experts have already determined the commercial potential of the future space travel.

It is possible that future space travel would be performed by the large and powerful space crafts which would have large propulsion systems. These space crafts would also have huge reactors that would be powered by something nuclear and very powerful in order to make such space crafts go with the speed of light during the fast travel. Besides, space travel could give an opportunity to visit other planets which have other life forms. Space travel would be great as people would be ready to communicate with representatives of other planets. Of course, the experience of being in the outer space would be overwhelming for everyone.

In order to have an opportunity to travel economically to space and for the successful development of space tourism industry, it is necessary to build powerful reusable launch vehicles or space crafts. As today the commercial transport industries use multiuse vehicles, including aircrafts, trains, buses and etc., the commercial space transport industry should also have high quality space crafts. Today it is one of the main goals of scientists and engineers to develop low-cost reusable space crafts which could have all the necessary characteristics for safe space travel. According to the researches, there are a lot of interesting projects developed by the scientists, engineers and programmers from all over the world. It is not a secret that a lot of space planes that can take off like an airplane and can fly to orbit have always been a dream of a number of space engineers and science fiction writers.
