

LESSONS FROM LUCY

Lucy Dee was killed in a terrorist attack on April 7th, '23 along with her daughters, Maia and Rina. Lucy was an excellent, passionate English teacher. Below are ten principles that Lucy believed in and lived by. Her husband read them aloud at her funeral. May her memory be for a blessing.

Dear English Teachers and Students,
Choose one of the Lessons from Lucy from this poster. Click here to write about how it can help you become a better person. You may include your name and age, but you don't have to. This padlet will be shared with Lucy's family.

LESSON 1

Forgive. Don't hold grudges!

1

LESSON 2

Apologize even if it's not your fault. It might have the power to change things.

2

LESSON 3

Don't be upset for too long.

3

LESSON 4

Be passionate about what you do or change what you do.

4

LESSON 5

Get out of bed like a lion. Have an occupation or activity that inspires you to jump out of bed in the morning!

5

LESSON 6

You don't have to be the best; you just have to give your best.

6

LESSON 7

Always explore and be curious in life. You might be older but never grow up. Be youthful.

7

LESSON 8

Love all your kids equally.

8

LESSON 9

Share your love because it's abundant. Give endless love.

9

LESSON 10

Tell people how much you appreciate them now. When they are gone, it is too late.

10