My family

by Hannah King

My mom and dad have a very good diet and are very healthy. They only eat a little / a few red meat like pork or beef and they drink a little / a few coffee and tea each day. The problem is that my brother and I love fast food. We don't like healthy food and only eat a little / a few vegetables such as potatoes or beans. My parents say it is important that we eat fruit and vegetables because they are good for us, so I sometimes eat a little / a few apples or bananas. My brother thinks he is healthy because he only eats a little / a few chocolate daily and he never drinks coffee or tea, but he does drink a lot of soft drinks!! I don't like soft drinks very much, so I drink a little / a few water, but usually I drink tea or juice. I think my brother and I need to eat and drink more healthy food.

What's your perfect breakfast?

"On the weekend I love to eat eggs, bacon, sausage, tomatoes, mushrooms, and toast. And lots of tea! I don't have time to make such a big, cooked breakfast from Monday to Friday."

Julia, London, UK

"My favorite breakfast is eggs in hot sauce with refried beans, tortillas, and some coffee."

Juan, Guadalajara, Mexico

"I eat the same thing every day - fruit, bread, pastries, some juice, and some coffee."

Milton, Salvador, Brazil

"On weekends or special occasions, I usually eat smoked salmon and scrambled eggs with some rye bread. Other days I just have some bread and cheese - and black coffee, of course! I don't usually eat much in the mornings."

Alexander, Oslo, Norway

"I always eat rice with some fish and soup for breakfast. I don't have time to eat again until the evening so a good breakfast is important to maintain my energy level through the day."

Kimiko, Tokyo, Japan

"Rice porridge with chicken is my best breakfast. I have this about three times a week."

Lin, Beijing, China
