

Comparatives & Superlatives

Last summer I travelled around Europe...

1. Complete the sentences with the adjectives in brackets in the comparative or superlative form.

Last summer I travelled around Europe and visited many interesting places. Prague is one of _____ (beautiful) cities in Europe, and I loved exploring its old streets. Later I went to England, which was _____ (far) away than Prague, but still very exciting. I visited London and York. Some people say London is _____ (exciting) than York, but I liked both cities. Of course, London was _____ (expensive) than the other cities we went to, so staying there was quite expensive. It was July, and July is usually _____ (hot) month of the year, but surprisingly this summer it was _____ (cold) than last year, and the weather changed quickly.

One day during my travels my friend and I talked about other countries to see next summer. She said that Spain is _____ (sunny) than England, and we agreed it was a great place to relax. We also discussed mountains. Did you know Mount Everest is _____ (tall) mountain in the world? I hope I get to see it one day.

During the trip I spent a lot of time reading, too. The book I brought with me was _____ (good) than the last one I read, and it kept me entertained during some long train rides. I also solved some crossword puzzles and riddles in my puzzle book. The final puzzle was _____ (difficult) than the rest, but it was still one of _____ (easy) puzzle books I've ever solved, so it was still fun to practice.

In the evenings our travel group often went out to have dinner together. One night we found a delicious place to eat, and everyone agreed that the restaurant we chose had _____ (good) view in London, so we should definitely go see it. My friend Anna, who lives in London, joined us too. She has _____ (much/many) friends than any of us, so she knew exactly where to take us after dinner. She took us to a great karaoke bar. PS! She is also _____ (pretty) girl I know.

On the final day we visited a museum. Our guide said, "This is _____ (interesting) museum here, so listen up!" and we spent hours looking at the exhibits. In the main square we saw a historic monument—it was one of _____ (beautiful) buildings in the square.

Later that evening we watched a football match on TV at the hotel. It was _____ (exciting) match of the season, and everyone cheered loudly. It really felt like _____ (happy) day of my life.

When we returned to our rooms, we compared our luggage. My friend laughed and said, "My bag is _____ (big) than yours, I bought so many souvenirs." While packing souvenirs, I noticed that a box was _____ (large) than I thought, so I had to leave it out of my luggage.

Unfortunately, our hotel was not very comfortable. "This is _____ (bad) hotel in the town!" someone complained.

When I finally returned home, I noticed something funny. After travelling, my room looked _____ (tidy) than before. I think my roommate had cleaned it to surprise me. How great!

2. Complete the sentences using the following adjective expressions: as ... as, NOT as ... as, enough, too, really/very.

Yesterday was cold. Today is not cold. - Today is _____ yesterday.

Do you want to go shopping? I can't I don't have _____ money.

May is funny. Kate is funny, too. - Kate is _____ May.

How was your trip to Rome? It was _____ interesting.

Was that skirt cheap? No, it was _____ expensive.

Is this T-shirt the correct size? No, it's _____ big for Tedd.

Frank is very clever. Chris is not very clever. - Chris is _____ Frank.