2 A Choose the correct alternatives to complete the sentences.

1 We intended / was intended to sell our house last year but in the end, we decided not to move.
2 Bridget plans / was planning to move to Sydney after university, but she got a job in Melbourne.
3 They were expecting / were hoping us to arrive at 8 p.m. but our train was delayed.
4 I was hope / hoping to see Alex, but he was busy.
5 I meant / meant to come clean to you, but I was scared of what you would say.
6 I sent him flowers because I thought it would / it make him happy.

B The sentences below have a mistake. Choose the best option to correct the mistake.

1 They intend to finish the project last week, but they were delayed.
   a were intend to b intended to c didn't intend to 2 I wasn't trying to upset you. I was mean to help you.
   a wasn't meaning to b meant c didn't mean
3 Was she going pretend that nothing was wrong?
   a Was she going to b She was going to c Is she going
4 They planning to visit us last summer, but they couldn't afford the plane tickets.
   a plan
   b planned
   c are planning

C Complete the conversation with the correct form of was/were going to.

A: Hey Simon, sorry I didn't phone you yesterday. I [1] _____ call you after work, but it was late.
B: That's OK. How was your weekend?
A: It was good. I [2] _____ visit Karis in London, but the train was cancelled.
B: What a shame! What [3] _____ you _____ do with Karis?
A: We [4] _____ go to the new exhibition at the Science Museum and I was really looking forward to it.
B: What did you do instead?
A: I [5] _____ do anything, but then Martina called so I went to the cinema with her. We [6] _____ watch that new action film, but there weren't any tickets, so we saw a drama about a hoax instead. It was pretty good.
B: Oh, I want to watch that. I [7] _____ see it at the weekend, but I wasn't feeling well.
A: Are you feeling better now? Do you want to meet up later?
B: I [8] _____ do anything today, but sure! Where do you want to meet?

LIVEWORKSHEETS