

1 Choose the correct option to complete the text.

How does the older generation feel when it
⁰ is confronted / confronts by new technology?
 Some ¹ believe / are believed that in general they are rather shy of new advances. They ² have been proved / have proved wrong by my grandfather at least. Last year he ³ was given / gave a tablet as a retirement gift. We thought that he might not ⁴ have been shown / have shown much interest in this gift. Even right at the start, it was hard for the device ⁵ to register / to be registered in his name. Still, he managed to do it, ⁶ being given / giving a little help by myself.
 And he ⁷ has been made / has made good use of it ever since.

____ / 7

2 Rewrite the sentences in the passive. Omit by and the agent.

- 0 People use watches less often these days.
 Watches are used less often these days.
- 1 They were making changes to my favourite
 website last night.
 Changes _____
 last night.
- 2 Why haven't they taken down these old posters
 yet?
 Why _____?
- 3 They are building new office blocks to the north of the city centre.
 New office blocks _____
 _____ to the north of the city centre.
- 4 Our dog enjoys it when people take him for a walk.
 Our dog enjoys _____.
- 5 When did people visit the zoo for the first time
 after its renovation?
 When _____
 for the first time after its renovation?
- 6 They aren't going to send this year's exam results
 by post.
 This year's exam results _____
 _____ by post.
- 7 They might give us free tickets to the charity
 football match.
 We _____
 to the charity football match.
- 8 When you got to the party, how much cake had
 they already eaten?
 When you got to the party, how much cake
 _____?

____ / 8

TOTAL ____ / 15

1 Choose the correct option to complete the text.

How does the older generation feel when it
⁰ is confronted / confronts by new technology?
 They ¹ are targeting / are being targeted as consumers more often these days, but they can feel at a disadvantage if they don't have enough experience with technology. Fortunately, operating instructions ² can be followed / can follow more easily by the elderly now. My own grandmother ³ has certainly benefited / has certainly been benefited from these. She ⁴ gave / was given a new smartphone for her birthday last month. Initially, she ⁵ rather confused / was rather confused by all the functions and choices available. However, ⁶ giving / being given a little help, she has been able to make good use of it. Now we ⁷ are all treating / are all being treated to her latest news on social media!

____ / 7

2 Rewrite the sentences in the passive. Omit by and the agent.

- 0 People use watches less often these days.
 Watches are used less often these days.
- 1 They are selling a lot more drones these days.
 A lot more drones _____.
- 2 When will they release their new smartwatch?
 When _____?
- 3 The guest speaker worried that people at the back of the conference hall would not hear him.
 The guest speaker worried about _____
 _____ at the back of the conference hall.
- 4 How many protestors did they arrest outside the cosmetics factory?
 How many protestors _____
 _____ outside the cosmetics factory?
- 5 People can see the sculpture exhibition only until the end of July.
 The sculpture exhibition _____
 _____ until the end of July.
- 6 How much rubbish had they cleared when the photographers arrived?
 How much rubbish _____
 _____ when the photographers arrived?
- 7 People were watching the last episode when the electricity went off.
 When the electricity went off, the last episode
 _____.
- 8 They are only going to report some highlights of the whole election.
 Only some highlights of the whole election
 _____.

____ / 8

TOTAL ____ / 15